Call for Proposals

37th Annual NC Indian Unity Conference

Renaissance Charlotte Suites Hotel •
Charlotte, NC

March 8-10, 2012

2012 Conference Theme — “Still Making History”

The N.C. Indian Unity Conference provides a forum to address health, education, social, cultural, political, spiritual, and economic issues affecting the American Indian population of North Carolina. The conference brings together national, state, local and tribal leaders to discuss concerns, identify resources, and develop strategic solutions to advocate for and improve the well-being of North Carolina’s first citizens.

The 2012 conference theme, “Still Making History,” represents the contributions American Indians have made and continue to make to their tribal communities, the State of North Carolina, and national American Indian affairs.

Four concurrent workshop sessions will be held at the conference:

Thursday, March 8

Workshop Session I: 3:45 pm – 4:45 pm

Friday, March 9

Workshop Session II: 10:15 am – 11:15 am

Workshop Session III: 11:30 am – 12:30 pm

Workshop Session IV: 3:30 pm – 4:30 pm

Please complete page 2 of this document and send it along with your bio no later than February 10, 2012 to Rebecca LaClaire at rebecca.laclaire@gmail.com. If you have questions, call (910)258-6200.

United Tribes of North Carolina is a nonprofit corporation established in 1982 to provide greater coordination and unity among the Indian tribes and organizations of the state, to promote educational, economic, religious, charitable and cultural activities for Indian people, and to increase and to increase economic prosperity for Indians of North Carolina.
