March 2020 Edition

HUB Advisory Council members and Deputy Secretary of Department of Administration Betty Marrow-Taylor.

HUB Advisory Council—March Recap

The HUB Advisory Council met on March 10th in Raleigh. The Council heard from The NC Justice Center, NC DHHS, and Charlotte Mecklenburg School Systems on HUB initiatives. The HUB Office shared best practices and updates from Virginia's SWaM Certification program. Updates were provided on the current disparity study, which remains on track for completion by summer 2020. The meeting concluded with the Council's year end report listing accomplishments and recommendations from the past year. The next HUB Advisory Council meeting will take place in May.

Director's Quote of the Month:

"Each time a woman stands up for herself, without knowing it possibly, without claiming it, she stands up for all women." — Maya Angelou

~Governor Roy Cooper declared March as Women's History Month~

The NC HUB Office would like to recognize and celebrate our HUB businesses owned and operated by women across the state! Thank you for your contributions to our economy.

2020 Take No Bull Women's Conference

The HUB Office was proud to be an exhibitor at the 2020 Take No Bull Women's Conference hosted by The Greater Durham Chamber of Commerce on March 6th. The conference featured panel discussions with female entrepreneurs, exhibitors, networking opportunities, and a keynote address by Heather Pownall—Chief Development Officer for the Association for Women in Science.

Impacts of Coronavirus for Small Businesses

Governor Roy Cooper's request for an emergency declaration for small businesses has been granted. The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) has issued a disaster declaration for the entire State of NC. The SBA is offering low-interest federal disaster loans for working capital to NC small businesses suffering substantial economic injury as a result of the Coronavirus. Find out more and apply for loans here.

*The HUB Office is currently offering online seminars for our HUB Certification Trainings. Submit a request here for training.

*Please check our events page for details and for updates on previously scheduled trainings and events.
